

This QR Code will take you to a map of the newly redrawn IL-35th Senate District. It is a live Google map that will show your location and the boundaries of the district.

Please feel free to use the search bar to determine where the boundary lines are if there are questions about where a voter lives, where you are circulating the petition or anything else that may come up.

Thank you!

